A Word From Kaz

By: Stephen Kaczmarek, Editor-In-Chief

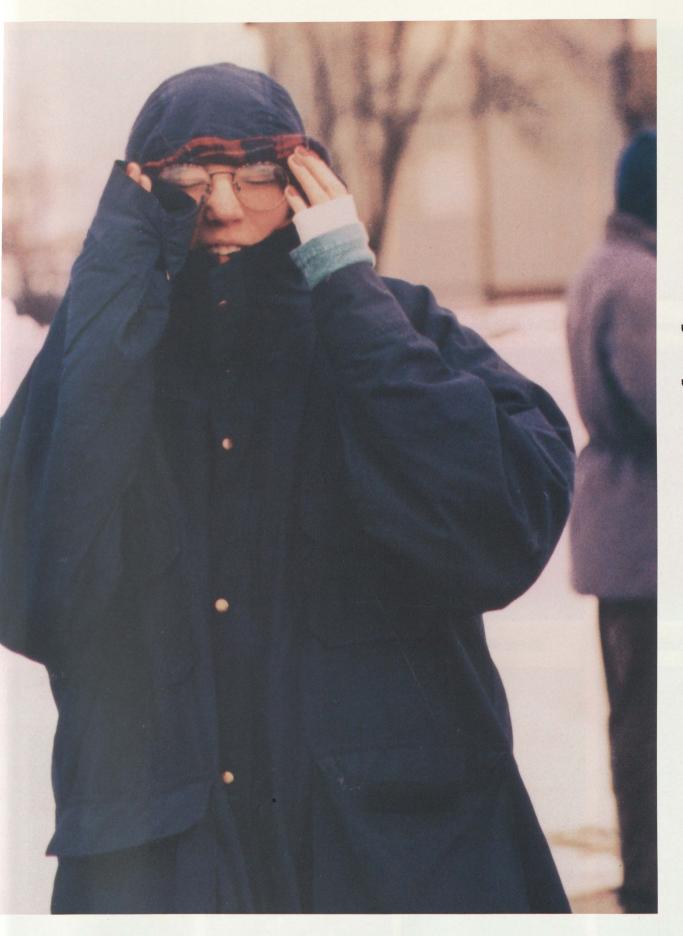

After putting the decision off for six months, spring rolled around and the yearbook theme needed to be decided. Many things were mentioned to me including a theme of "Get Off On This" to go along with a fuzzy, velvet cover, (I wanted to puke). I have never experienced the editor position before, but I knew I wanted a book with pizazz. Meeting after meeting, my two sidekicks and I battled for an enthusiastic, pride related cover and theme. The idea "All Fired Up " was mentioned and I thought it was quite catchy. It is a quite suitable theme considering the reason we are Heritage is because someone burnt down the school. Besides the theme problems, there were many changes this year including a sixteen page insert from Worldbook Encyclopedia titled " World Beat ". The next important change was an increase in sports coverage, because we felt sports were a big part of the school year. Throughout all of the changes everyone was helpful and most kept a level head. Staff photographer Kristin Weselok was one of the biggest helps, considering she was only with us for the second semester. The always perky Roland Crane was also a big plus. Usually advisors lookout for the students, but this year we managed to keep Rol in line. Although she trashed many of my stories I still loved the ever famous student teacher, Tonya Samuels. Last but not least my two assistant editors Michelle and Christina cannot be thanked enough for all of the out- of -school hours they put in with me. In conclusion many hours have been spent on the book and we hope you enjoy it.

The Outdoors Club started out the year with a trip to South Manitoe Island. Twenty students went: three women and seventeen men. Advisor Roland Crane and president Rachel Shaw's dad, Bruce, were the two chaperones. Members hiked up to fifteen miles each day. After they returned from hikes and long days on the sand dunes, the adventurers bathed themselves in Lake Michigan. The trip lasted for three days and two nights. Transportation included an hour ferry ride to the island and back.

Mock Rock 95' was quite a success this year with lots of entertainment and many, many laughs. To start off the night, Heritage band, Super K performed a variety of well known numbers from Pink Floyd to R.E.M. From then on it was pure entertainment. From the faculty dressing up as nuns to Teddy in a bumblebee costume all of the acts delighted the crowd. Yep, Yeah, Uh-Huh practically brought the Vasher Theater down and took home first place of $200. 2nd place, awarding $100, was The Pick Up Men. The 3rd place of $50 was awarded to 2-Hype. Mock Rock is getting even more fired up as the years go on. It's been a tradition for quite some time. Hopefully it will last throughout the finishing years of Heritage High.

Better late than Never?

One of the many changes this year is the new tardy policy. During the first semester any student who accumulated two tardies in a class received an absence. Now anyone with three tardies is required to attend a Saturday detention. If the student does not attend the Saturday detention s/he will receive a two day off-campus suspension. Officials hope the new tardy policy will lessen the problem of students being late for class.

Prom occupies junior council

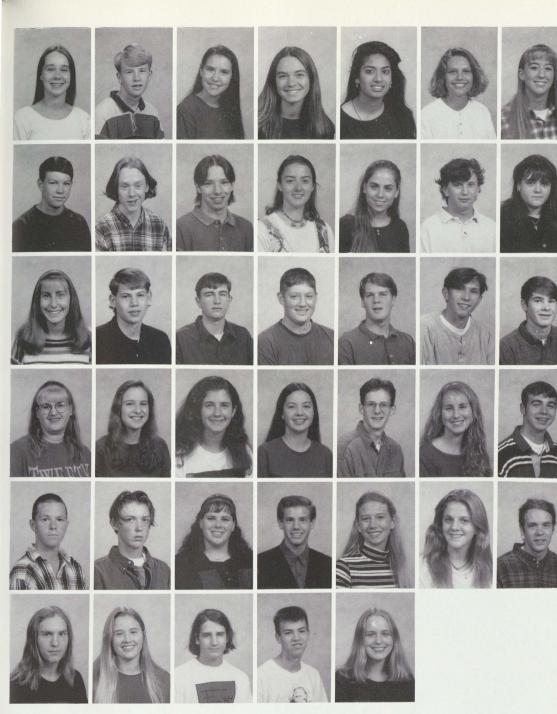

The Junior Council Executives were very busy this year. One of their main projects for the year was Prom. The group started in early February working along with the rest of the Junior Council and volunteers. Dealing with budgets and theme ideas, the group had as much work as they needed. This year has been fun and, "we feel we have become a closer knit group because of the hard work and long hours together," said Paul Smith, Junior Vice-President.

Junior Council floats to second place

The Junior class council started out their year with the Junior class float as their first major project. The juniors received second place next to the sophomores in the float competition. The council's main goal this year is to put on a successful prom for the senior class. When asked about their progress this year on council, Rochelle Macnowski and Erica Breidenbach both replied "were getting there."

Sophomores suspect conspiracy

The sophomore class council swept the float categories in the homecoming parade competition and after the parade they participated in the tailgate party where they sold submarine sandwiches and ice cream. The main goal of the sophomore council this year was to raise money for next year's prom. They not only participated in the tailgate party, they also sold M&M's and had a pop can drive. Community service was another project that the council worked on. They had a sing-a-long at Saginaw Geriatrics and distributed Christmas cards to various nursing homes in Saginaw. The Sophomores had a hard time with class competition this year. Vice-President Mark Mersman says "We seem to get robbed in the bulletin board competition a lot of the time." Council member Justin Schnettler thinks that the reason they are so behind in points is that it is all a conspiracy, and the seniors paid off the lunch ladies.

Sophomore Slump?

It seems to be that every year the freshman class goes buck wild in the class competition race. They even get to the point of being in contention for the day out of school. By the time that sophomore year rolls around, there seems to have been a change of spirit. They no longer even compete with the other classes. The sophomore class drops into last place and stays there until the race is over. What happened to that really entusiastic group of students? They have fallen into the curse of the sophomore class. Every year the sophomore class finishes dead last in class competition. This change of heart has never been explained. Many say that it is because they realize just how much longer they have left of high school. They just don't care anymore. When they become juniors that H.H.S. pride comes rushing back and they take class competition to new levels.

Hazing freshmen

Hazing has been a high school tradition for many years. Until this year, four freshmen had been selected to be "diapered" at the first assembly. That was the official start up for the freshman hazing season. Freshmen do not only get "diapered", they get thrown in trash cans, taped to poles and when the first snow comes, they get whitewashed. It becomes a daily occurrence to see some poor freshman's feet dangling out of a trash can. Not only do freshmen get hazed at school, if they choose to join a sorority or fraternity they have to deal with "hell week". Freshman might not approve of the hazing but it will take more than a few complaints to change H.H.S. tradition.

here are many new, young faces here at Heri tage High. We call them Freshman and they have quite a name for themselves. They also have many opinions about their new school, or jail, as some would call it. Some think of it as a great learning structure with great opportunities but dislike the way it is abused. As John Oberschmidt stated, "I don't mind people smoking, but they shouldn't do it inside." Hiram Becker thinks, "There's too much trash in the hallways." Others love the freedom and excitement that their middle school didn't give to them . Matthew Ventimiglia says, "I hate the fact of going to school altogether but it's easy to skip." Our new underclassmen are beginning to realize the advantages and disadvantages of our school. Their opinions will change during the course of their next four long years. They have only just begun.

Waldo's Wonders protected from hazing Cookie Monster's Clan not allowed to diaper freshmen very year the Student Assembly is given the task of choosing a mas cot for the new freshmen class. Intense brainstorming and sharing of creative ideas led them to choose Waldo's Wonders for the class of '97. But that is just one of the crazy names given to classes their freshmen year. The sophomores were labelled Barney's Bunch, juniors were named Gonzo's Gang, and seniors are known as Cookie Monster's Clan. The freshmen in the past have found out their class mascot after being diapered at their first pep assembly, but because of the hazing problem this year, the freshmen did not have to be diapered. Hopefully the diapering tradition will be back next year, but the class mascot tradition is certainly here to stay.

Jared Snyder, and Mike Grillo

The junior varsity football team had a trying year. Plagued with injuries, the hawks went on to win three of their nine games. Freshman standout Aaron Boysen helped lead the team through all the good and the bad times. Along with Boysen, Jason Rivette did an outstanding job "plugging up the middle". When asked about next season Sophmore Matt McLeod says they would like to help the varsity team and try to improve the football program.

Every Cloud Has A Silver Lining

Although the Hawks varsity football team went winless, the players do not believe the season was a complete failure. Senior Mike Barrera says," You really can't judge our season by our 0-9 record. If you were a player on the team, you would know of the unity among us players. We never gave up at any point of the season." The Hawks may not have accomplished their goal of having a winning season, but many of the players agreed that football is not only about winning. Dave Roche stated "The fact that we were 0-9 turned out to be a minor detail we were a team; we stuck together and had fun." Mike Grillo, Chris Hales, Waleed Kais, Dave Roche, Josh Smith, and Brian Suchockli made the Saginaw Valley League All Academic Team. Other awards were given to Johnny Worthen, who made second team All Valley offense, Gary Myers and Andy Wisniewski made second team All Valley defense. The varsity team had a year of learning and hard work, they can only move on to better things next year. "All in all," says Mike Barrera, "we had a fun season and that's all that matters. We all need to remember that this isn't life and death, it's just a game."

The Building Blocks Of Cross Country

The boy's cross country team held a 0-6 dual meet record and finished 8th of twelve teams in the Saginaw Valley League. The team consisted of many first-time runners as well as two seniors. Captain Shawn Hansen finished 8th in the Valley meet, 11th in the region and continued to break the school 3.1 mile record with a time of 16.54. On November 4, he proved to be the 36th fastest runner in Michigan. Sophomore runner, T.R. Longo stated, "Our team was the building block of cross-country teams in Heritage's future. We set the standards of hard work and dedication to the coach. each other, and the school we represent." Practices began in August and continued through November. Each day the team ran between one and ten miles. The girl's team carried a 7-4 dual meet record placing 3rd in the Saginaw Valley League. Coach Durand commented that the team is the fastest she has ever coached. Heather Vondrasek and Captain Michelle Stevens were named to the All Academic Team as well as Keith Suppes and Shawn Hansen. Heather Combs captured a spot on the 2nd Saginaw Valley Team. Individalism is the basis for cross-country and our team acted with spirit. Our running techniques were out of the ordinary, but they worked for us, said first time runner Jodi Bowerman.

Hawks Take Roller Coaster Ride

The Heritage High Boys Junior Varsity soccer team started out the season with a win at Carmen-Ainsworth. The rest of the season was a roller coaster ride for the team. A win here and a loss there. The boys ended their trying season with a record above fifty percent. Co-captains Stephen Kaczmarek and John Carroll had to say this about their season "We started out rough but by the end of the season we had really begun to work like a team."

Varsity Soccer, Movin' On Despite Loss

Despite the loss of seven starting seniors and fifteen year head coach Bill Hartle, the Heritage boys soccer team had a productive season. Jim Stone, former coach of boys and girls soccer at MacArthur High School, began the 1994-95 soccer season with seven holes to fill. Led by senior captains Aric Wilcox and Matt Moreno the Hawks ended its two month season 11-4.

" Having a new coach really helped us out this year " said senior Brian Bamberg.

Playing well all season, the Hawks finished the year by advancing to Districts. However, the team lost in the semi finals to Midland 3 - 0.

Aric Wilcox, Matt Moreno, Troy Hiser and Chris Simon were named to the first All -Regional team. Chris Simon, the Hawks leading goal scorer, was named to the second team All-Conference and Aric Wilcox was given honorable mention. Players named to the Saginaw Valley League All -Academic Team were Justin Keaner, Matthew Lautzenhiser, John Macknowski, Christopher Simon, Scott Slade, and Christopher Wilson.

Never Say Die

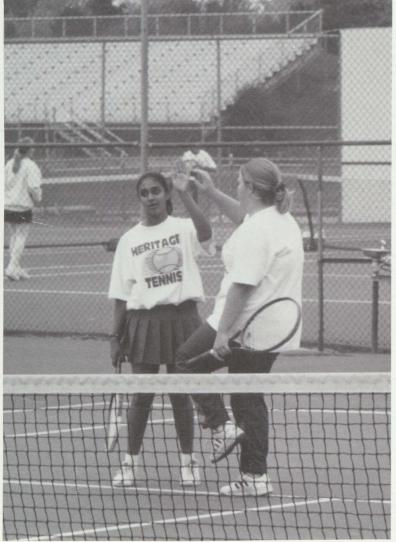

Girls varsity basketball had a young team that consisted of six juniors and three sophomores. But even with little varsity experience the Hawks played hard and won four games. Their final record was 4-18 in the highly competitive Saginaw Valley League. Captains Carrie Kahl and Abby Neuenschwander made the Saginaw Valley League All-Academic Team. Carrie Kahl also won the Lady Hawk award. Overall the team enjoyed the season and the new experience. Even though it would get tough to overcome the losing record, the Hawks pulled through. The team is looking forward to next years's season where they should have many players with varsity experience to be competitive in the new league. Trisha Boswell commented, "I am really looking forward to next year because we will have an experienced team". When asked about the season, Terra Howley answered, "The bus rides home were usually eventful". Whatever that means, it sound like the team had fun both on and off the court. And after all, that's all that really matters anyway.

On The Way

When the varsity tennis team started their season, they had one thing in mind. The Lady Hawks wanted another chance to prove themselves at the state tournament. With many hours of hard work and practice the girls ended up with a 9-2 record. The only losses were to rival team Midland Dow and Flint Central each with scores of 3-4. After an outstanding performance the Lady Hawks took second place in the Valley tournament. Number one singles player Cyra Malik, and the number two doubles team of Michelle Lange and Preeti Saigal each lost in the finals, and number two singles player Sarah Blanchet went on to become the Valley Champion for her flight. In regionals the Lady Hawks tied for second place with fourteen points, qualifying them for the state touranament. During the state tournament singles players Cyra Malik, Sarah Blanchet, and Jennifer Fry all made it to the second round. This years All-Valley players were Cyra Malik and Sarah Blanchet. Honorable Mention was given to Jennifer Fry, Rachel Shaw and Andrea Mosca. The Hawks had a great season and never let anything put a damper on their spirit... Not even running out of gas on the expressway.

Freshman Flock To J.V.

The junior varsity tennis team had a rebuilding year. With the loss of four top players they were driven to find replacements. Junior Anjani Rao took over the top spot at number one singles while Freshman Tara Prasad played at two singles. Starting at number one doubles was the Freshman duo of Any Gardner and Kara Dazarow. The girls had a hard season with only two wins under their belt, both as a result of beating Clio. When asked about their season Amy Gardner says, "It was a lot of fun and I am looking foreward to next year"

Scrub Squad

The varsity ski team set out this year with some goals that would help them to do well all year long. The team focused all of their energy on their skiing instead of their looks. Opponents would show up with matching jackets and racing suits on while Heritage came wearing the most bizzarre outfits. From camoflage to flannel the team wore just about everything. The boys coach, Matt Stillson recognized the teams outfits and decided to name the team " Scrub Squad." The boys also gave nicknames to eachother such as blueberry and swiss cheese The team finished their season with a 8 to 2 record. Arron Patrzik, Troy Hiser and Sarah Miller all went to the state competition. In conclusion Dan Fickes said it best "when it comes to our clothes and our equipment its not the tools its the plumber."

Plagued Year, Needed To Be Forgotten

Varsity basketball had a trying year. With the loss of many key seniors the team was forced to find replacements. The only returning players were seniors John Macnowski, Jacob Kunkle, and J.D. Lewis. Despite the lack of experience the team started the season with a win against Bay City Central. The Hawks had a season of defeat, only winning three games, and were constantly plagued with injuries. Starter John Macknowski was on the injured list for ten games along with Jacob Kunkle who was sidelined with battle wounds. Led by J.D. Lewis, junors Mike "Big Red" Connolly, Josh Sullivan and Erik Pankonin, were right there beside him passing, shooting, and scoring for the Hawks. Sophomore standouts Steve Mossner and Jeff Knapp also helped out on the court. Although the basketball team did not have its best season, the players are anxious for next year when they will be a more experienced team.

Fourth And One

The 1994-1995 girls Varsity Pom Pon squad advanced to state finals after scoring forty out of fifty points at the regional competition. During the week of state finals the team was very tense. Rival Garden City was going to the state competition also. The team had one goal this year and it was to annihilate Garden City. The competition went very well, now all the team could do was wait. The M.C. came over the microphone and gave thanks to all of the teams and their coaches. She announced all of the honorable mention teams, (which included Garden City) she then announced the forth and fifth runners up, finally "the third runner up, Heritage High School." The girls were ecstatic they had beaten Garden City and finished two spots better than last year. The long season of two hour practices had finally paid off. Girls J.V. and Freshman Pom Pon squad joined together and went to the state finals along with the varsity team. The rival was again Garden City and the team went onto defend the State Championship.

The men's varsity swim team had an outstanding season. They finished the year with a record of six wins and only two losses. The swim team worked very hard this year to be the best team they could be. Practices took place early in the morning before and after school for a total of four hours. The hard work paved off, and at the Tri-Cities meet the swimmers placed fourth. When asked about the season Junior Justin Keaner says, "Although we were a young team we all worked together and tried our hardest." Senior Gabe Sauvie and freshman standout Jason Ford both placed first in the Saginaw Valley league meet in the 100-yard breaststroke and the 100-yard backstroke. Another high point of the season was the conquering of long time rival Arthur Hill. At the State meet Gabe Sauvie was the only representitive swimming for Heritage. Awards were given to sophomore Milan Muslin for most improved swimmer, while Chris Brant received the coach's award for achievement in swimming and his leadership throughout the season. Jason Ford was given Freshman M.V.P. while Gabe Sauvie received all around M.V.P and made the All-Area team.

Keepin' the Faith

The girls varsity swim team couldn't have asked for much more this year. When the Lady Hawks started their season, they expected it to be a year of rebuilding. They had lost seven swimmers, and within the first month that number had grown to ten. "We never let that discourage us, " said captain Jodi Bray, "it brought us all together to form the true meaning of a team." The swimmers went on to finish the regular season with a record of eleven wins and only one loss to rival team Grand Blanc. During the Tri-Cities meet the Hawks were short a few of their top swimmers, but that did not slow them down. The girls went on to victory as they captured the third place title. Not only did the swimmers take third placed in the Tri-Cities meet, they also won the Saginaw Valley League championship for the second year in a row. Jodi Bray was named S.V.L. swimmer of the year and was the only person who made it to the state swim meet. Throughout the season the Hawks kept their spirits up. During the Tri-Cities meet the girls had all the teams hold hands around the pool and do the hokey-pokey. For an entire week before the Saginaw Valley meet the hawks wore their hair in braids to show unity. The swim team had an outstanding year, and is looking forward to many more in the years to come.

Experience at districts

This year the Hawks' hockey team was on fire. They started the season slow dropping two games in the Nouvel Invitational, but as the year progressed they improved their record to 11-12-1. Senior Brian Spence returned to Heritage hockey after two seasons off. Along with Spence, Gary Myers joined the Hawks, leading the team with forty-seven goals. The hockey team accomplished something that no other team in Heritage history has done, they won a district hockey game, defeating rival team Arthur Hill. Awards were given this year to Brian Spence, Aaron Murtonen Award, honorable mention All-Valley; Gary Myers, 1st team All-Valley and honorable mention All-State; David Knaus, 2nd team All-Valley and Mike Randall, honorable mention All-Valley. When asked about team rituals Senior Mike Grillo replied," We burned candles and worshiped a wooden tikki doll named Joe Boo." Whatever it was that helped the team out this year worked wonders. and the fans loved it.

The cheerleading team began a successful season at the University of Michigan Camp. The varsity squad qualified to participate in the Florida Comp USA Citrus Bowl and the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in the camp championships, but had to decline due to lack of funds. They received the outstanding squad and spirit awards. The varsity squad members included captain Becky Hoppe, Sarah Ross, Jennie Ziozios, Katie Deland, Katie Spaulding, Kristi Tolley, Lauren Nell, Pervi Trevidi and Heather Pollack. Becky Hoppe, senior squad member, qualified as a Universal Cheerleaders Association All Star and was offered a chance to participate in the London New Year's Day parade. The team was coached by Julie Stewart. The squads did not enter any competitions this year. Towards the end of the season half the team left due to lack of school spirit and conflicts with their new coach. The JV and freshman teams had to spend a great deal of time teaching their numerous new members the cheers. JV squad member Danielle Dambro was also an All Star cheerleader

Hawks End Up a Little Shy

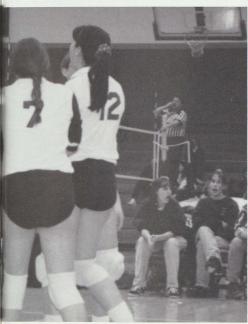

The girls volleyball team ended up a little shy of their goals this year but managed to have a productive season. Despite the loss of several players and the addition of Barb Bofferding and Stephanie Stewart to the varsity team, the Hawks adjusted to the change and proved themselves to be a threat to many teams in the Saginaw Valley League. One of the team goals was to become one of the top five teams in the league. The Hawks almost conquered their goal as they placed sixth. The girls usually played two matches a week, each consisting of the best of three games. The girls also attended tournaments throughout the state. One of the most memorable moments was the Ferris Tournament where all the players stayed in a hotel for a fun night before matches the next day. The Lady Hawks went on to make it to the semifinal round where they suffered a devastating loss to rival team Lakeview. Co-captains Carrie Kahl and Paige Jonker made sure the team not only supported each other on the court, but outside of it as well. Senior Paige Jonker was selected for Saginaw News Dream Team for her contributions to Heritage volleyball. In addition to this, the league presented numerous awards to members of the team. The Hawks junior varsity also had many changes in their team, but pulled through with a split season. Freshmen volleyball went undefeated in the Saginaw Valley League.

Heritage Hawk Crowned Valley Champion

The Heritage varsity wrestling team captured a seven and fourteen record this year. The matches began in December and ran until the end of February. Wrestlers struggled day and night to keep their weight as low as possible in order to remain in their respectable weight classes. A five-man team entered the Saginaw Valley League Championship where Heritage placed sixth out of eleven teams. When asked about the season, Senior John Veal commented, "We did very well this year, but our lack of depth hurt us. It was the difference between our wins and loses." Individually, Miguel Salinas placed fourth in the valley meet while Jason Hill placed second in the league and was recognized for winning over twenty matches in his division. Nicholas Curry advanced to the regional competion on February twenty-fifth. John Veal became Heritage's first ever Saginaw Valley League Champion in wrestling. Miguel Salinas remarked, "We had a very young team consisting mostly of sophmores and juniors and we hope to improve next vear."

A Year of Rebuliding

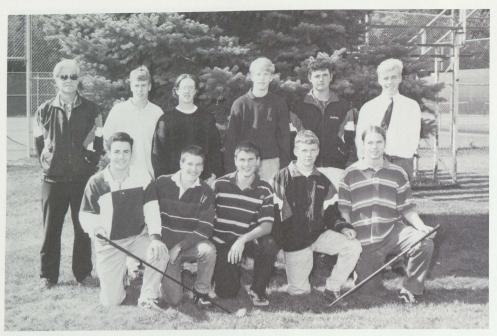

The boys varsity tennis team had a rocky season. With the loss of nine seniors, number one singles player Eric Pankonin had to step up and lead the way for the young team. The Hawks finished their season with a record of six wins and three losses. During regional competition the team gathered a total of five points, not enough to qualify for the state tournament. Senior Mike Barrera and Junior Eric Pankonin were awarded co-MVPs for their outsanding performance throughout the season. Although the year started out slow, the Hawks never gave up and worked hard all season to improve themselves. Now with a more experienced team the Hawks can only move on to bigger and better things.

Team Ties For Title

The girls varsity soccer team tied for the Saginaw Valley League title along with Midland Dow. The girls final record was 14-2-1. The girls had an outstanding season this year led by captains Jill Mikoleizik and Julie Smith. Jill Mikoleizik was named team MVP and also the SVL conference MVP. Goal tenders Karissa Stone and Barb Bofferding also added help to the team with shutouts. Defenders Rachel Shaw and Natasha Stankiewicz played excellent, keeping shots away from the goalies. Four players were named to the All-Conference team including Jill Mikoleizik, Jenelle White, Sarah Eddy, and Julie Smith. The girls ended their season with a loss to Midland Dow in the district semifinals.

An Award-Winning Year

According to Roland Crane the newspaper staff, "Did what it set out to do and did a good job". There was a four person editorial board with Jeremy Brieske, Editor-in-chief, Anne Fettinger, Feature editor, Sara Goodell, News editor, and Jon Ross, Sports editor. The Heritage Voice published ten instead of eight—issues this year distributing two thousand copies to students and staff. The paper was funded by advertisements which the staff sold to local businesses. Production was done all on computers using desktop publishing in partnership with the Saginaw News. The staff achieved its goal of creating more feature stories that were in depth and not as entertaining as previous articles. The Michigan Interscholastic Press Association awarded the Voice the award of merit in division one. The staff received an award for the opinion-editorial spread. Individually, Anne Merriam received an award in News, Jeremy Briske in Sports News, Anne Fettinger. In human interest feature and review, and Jon Ross in ad layout.

Putting In Overtime

The 1994-1995 Legacy staff started out the year with their annual advertisment sale. When the sale was completed the staff needed a theme. Editors worked continuously to meet deadlines and think of a theme. Sunday night work sessions and five o'clock mornings were not uncommon. During the weeks when the staff was on deadline room 301 was very hectic. The editorial staff would stay until five-thirty at night to finish anything that needed to be done. The staff's first deadline included all the class photos. Soon following class photos came the fall sports. Many more deadlines were soon to follow. After several complaints about a fall yearbook, a pamphlet was published telling students about the advantages and disadvantages of a spring and fall book. After a survey was taken, results showed fifty percent of the students wanted a spring book and the other half either wanted a fall book or didn't care. The staff made many changes this year including a more enthusiastic theme, sports coverege was increased, and a more traditional cover was used. In conclusion the staff has put in many extra hours and has worked hard to bring the student body the best yearbook possible.

Metal and Wood Shop

Hands On Training

Students at Heritage High School take metal or wood shop thinking it is a blow off class. Students later find out that metal and woodshop are actually very hard classes. In the first part of the year students are taught how to use machines and what they are used for . In the second part of the year the students work on a project that determines their final grade. In the woodshop anything from a bookshelf to a compact disc holder can be found. Metal and woodshop classes are not just for guys. There are many girls who take classes like this so they can also understand machines. The students that take metal or wood shop class have to be willing to learn and not be afraid to get their hands dirty. For a teacher you would have one of the best, Mr. Scherzer. He is the man who will teach you what you want to learn.

It's About time

An important part of the school will be mising after this year and his name is Denis Copp. He is one of the best art and workshop teachers ever to teach at Heritage. Mr. Copp has been with the school district since the beginning of time. He has given many students the knowledge to help them open up and to be more artistic. Clay pots, sketches of people, and paintings can be found throught his room. With all of the skills that Mr. Copp has mastered, many people feel honored that he is one of Heritage's art teachers. Mr. Copp often talks about going to Reno to visit his son and to, as he would himself say "win it big." It is about time that a respected man like Mr. Copp has some rest and time away from students. Mr. Dennis Copp will always be remembered as one of Heritage's greatest teachers.

Varsity Choir

Travelling to Toronto

This year the Varsity Choir travelled to Toronto, Ontario to participate in the Fiesta-Val Invitational competition. Fourteen schools from eleven states competed in both vocal and instrumental music. Varsity Choir has competed in Toronto before, but this is the first year they entered the Men's and Treble Choir division. The Men's choir captured first place, and both Chad Gibson and Michael Barerra received Outstanding Soloist Awards. The Treble Choir placed second, but received a score of 94 out of 100. The Show Choir placed first, performing "Down By the Riverside", a medley from "Miss Saigon", and "That Great Come and Get it Day." All choreography was created and taught by choir members Corrie Barker, Amanda Strong, Meenakshi Chaku, Shannon Hancock, and Carrle Greenberg. Oustanding Soloist Awards were also presented to Carrie Kahl and Dena Pruitt. Varsity Choir, as a whole, was named Grand Champion of the festival, having the highest average score of all it's competitors.

Cinco De Mayo

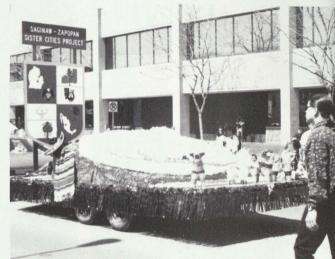

Not Mexican Independance Day!

Cinco De Mayo is more than just the 5th of May and no, it is not Mexican Independance Day. Cinco De Mayo is a day of great pride and strength for Mexicans. On this day in the Mexican French war of 1821 Mexican farmers stood up for themselves. French armys came over to Mexico to take their land over. Although the French won the war against the Mexicans the farmers won that one battle with their rakes shovels and hoes on the 5th of may.that is way this day is celebrated wit hthe pride of all Mexicans to prove it. Saturday May 6th was the we held the festivaties and the parade. The day started wit hthe parade where people of all sorts showed their support for this day. The parade started at Ruben Daniels and ended at Ojibawea Island where the festivities began. L.A.O. won the 2nd place award with $150 prize for their float. Mr. and Mrs. Pugh also attended the parade. They rode horses with Cisto Orosco. In Mr. Pugh's words "It was great!"
